

Urban Water Conservation Report for April 2018

Informational Item 7

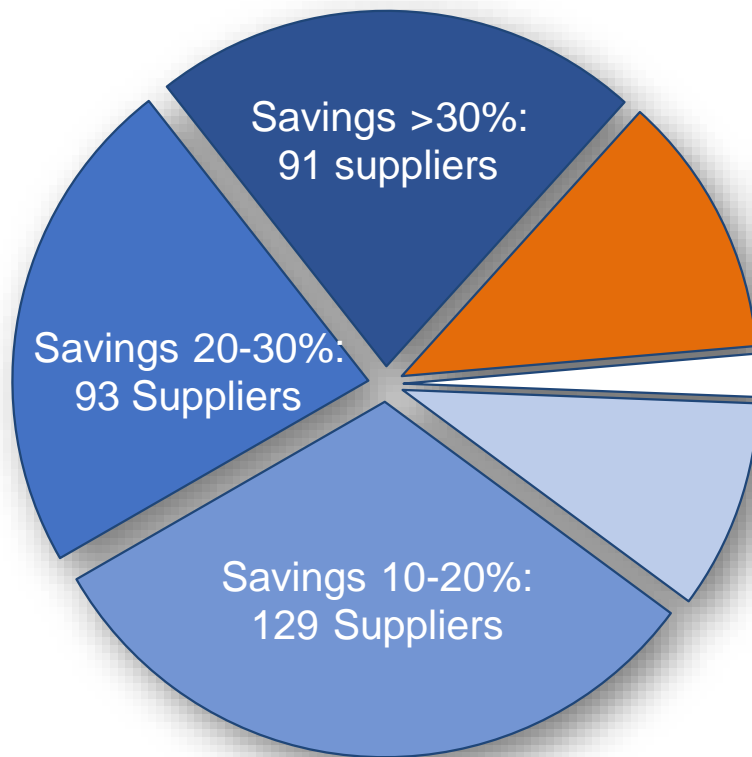

June 5, 2018

Water Conservation 19.6%

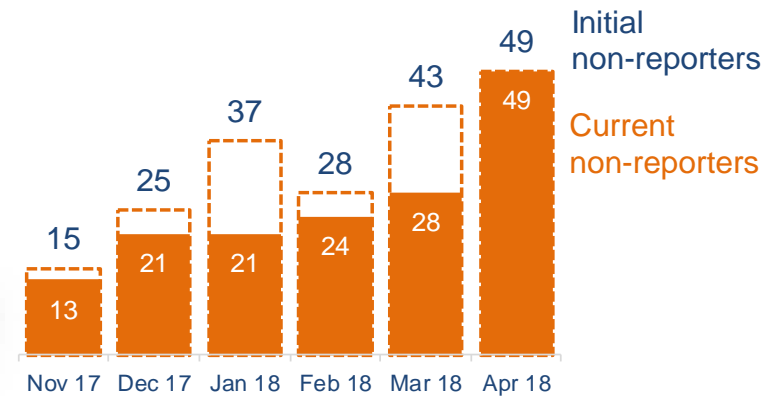

REPORTING Declines

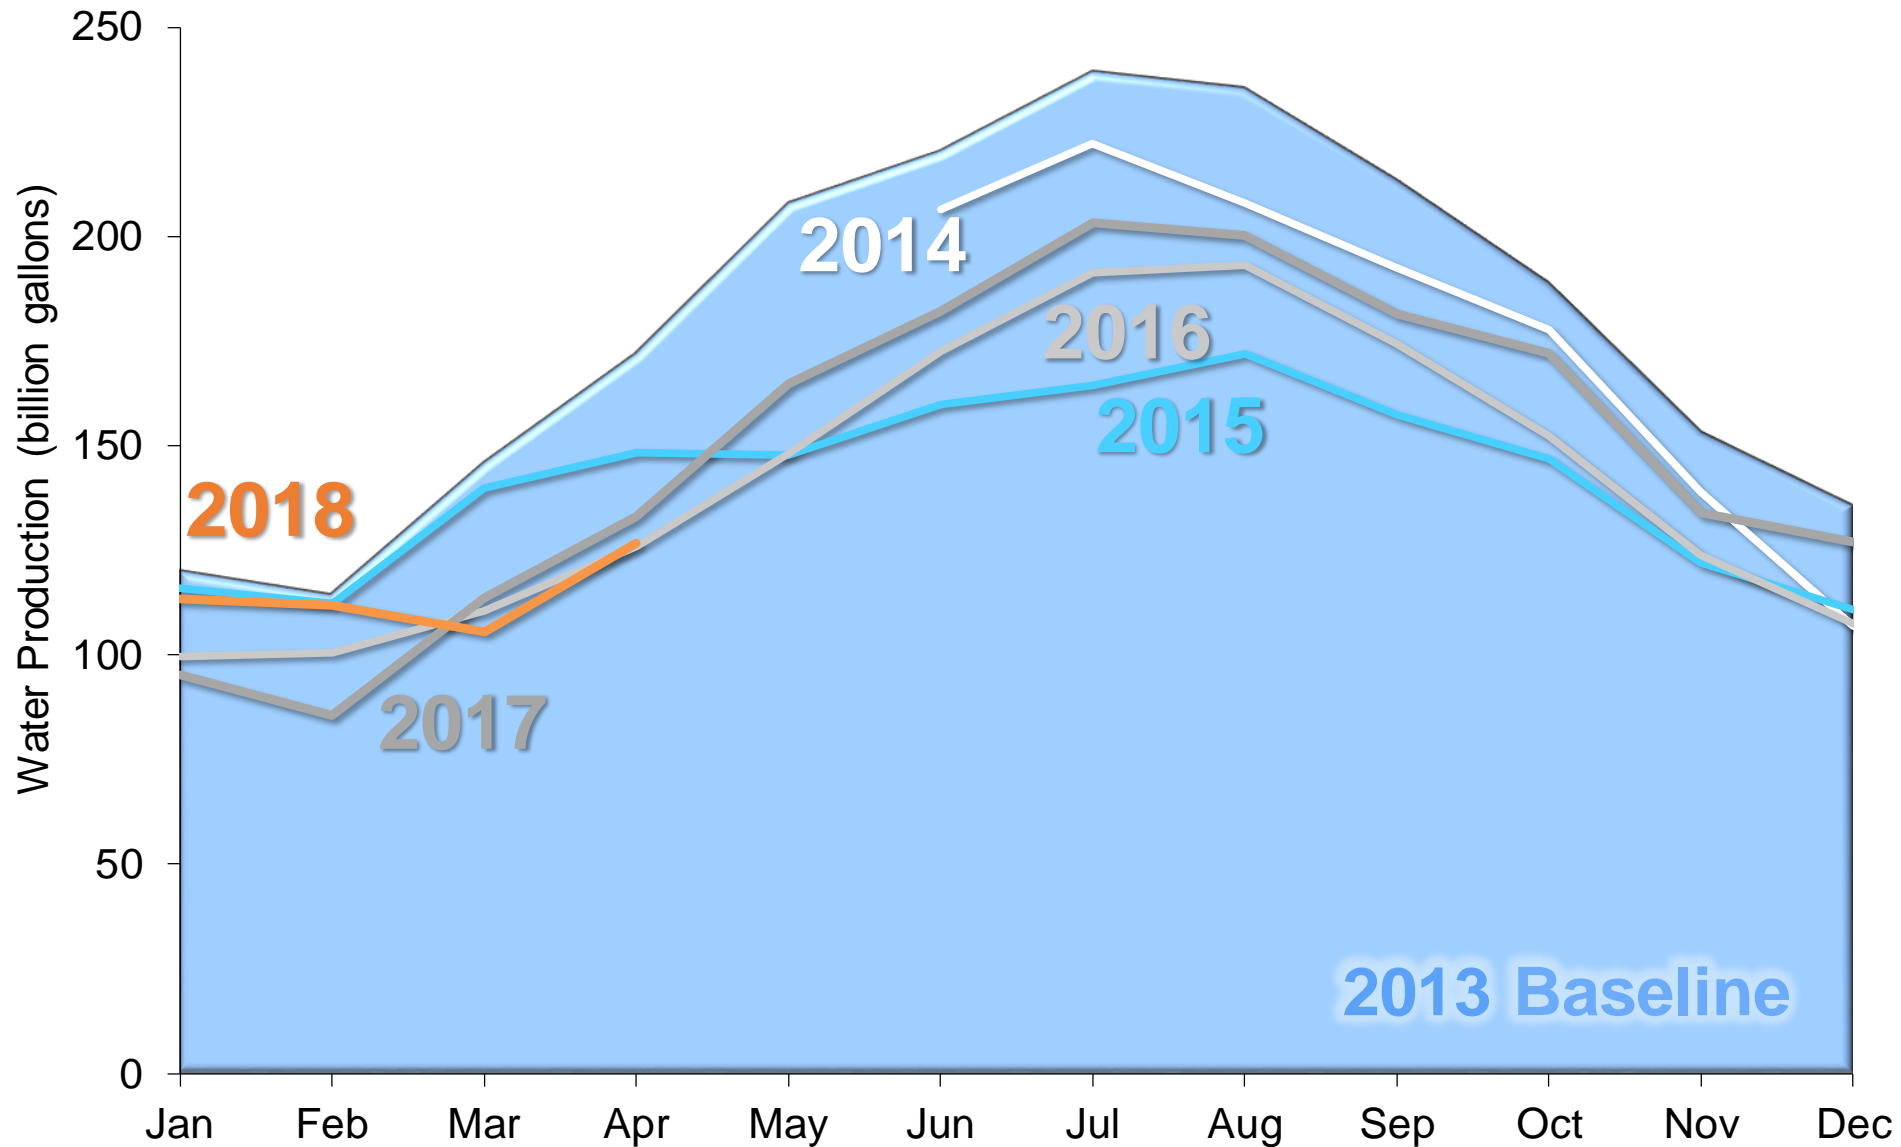

Did not report:
49 Suppliers

No savings:
8 Suppliers

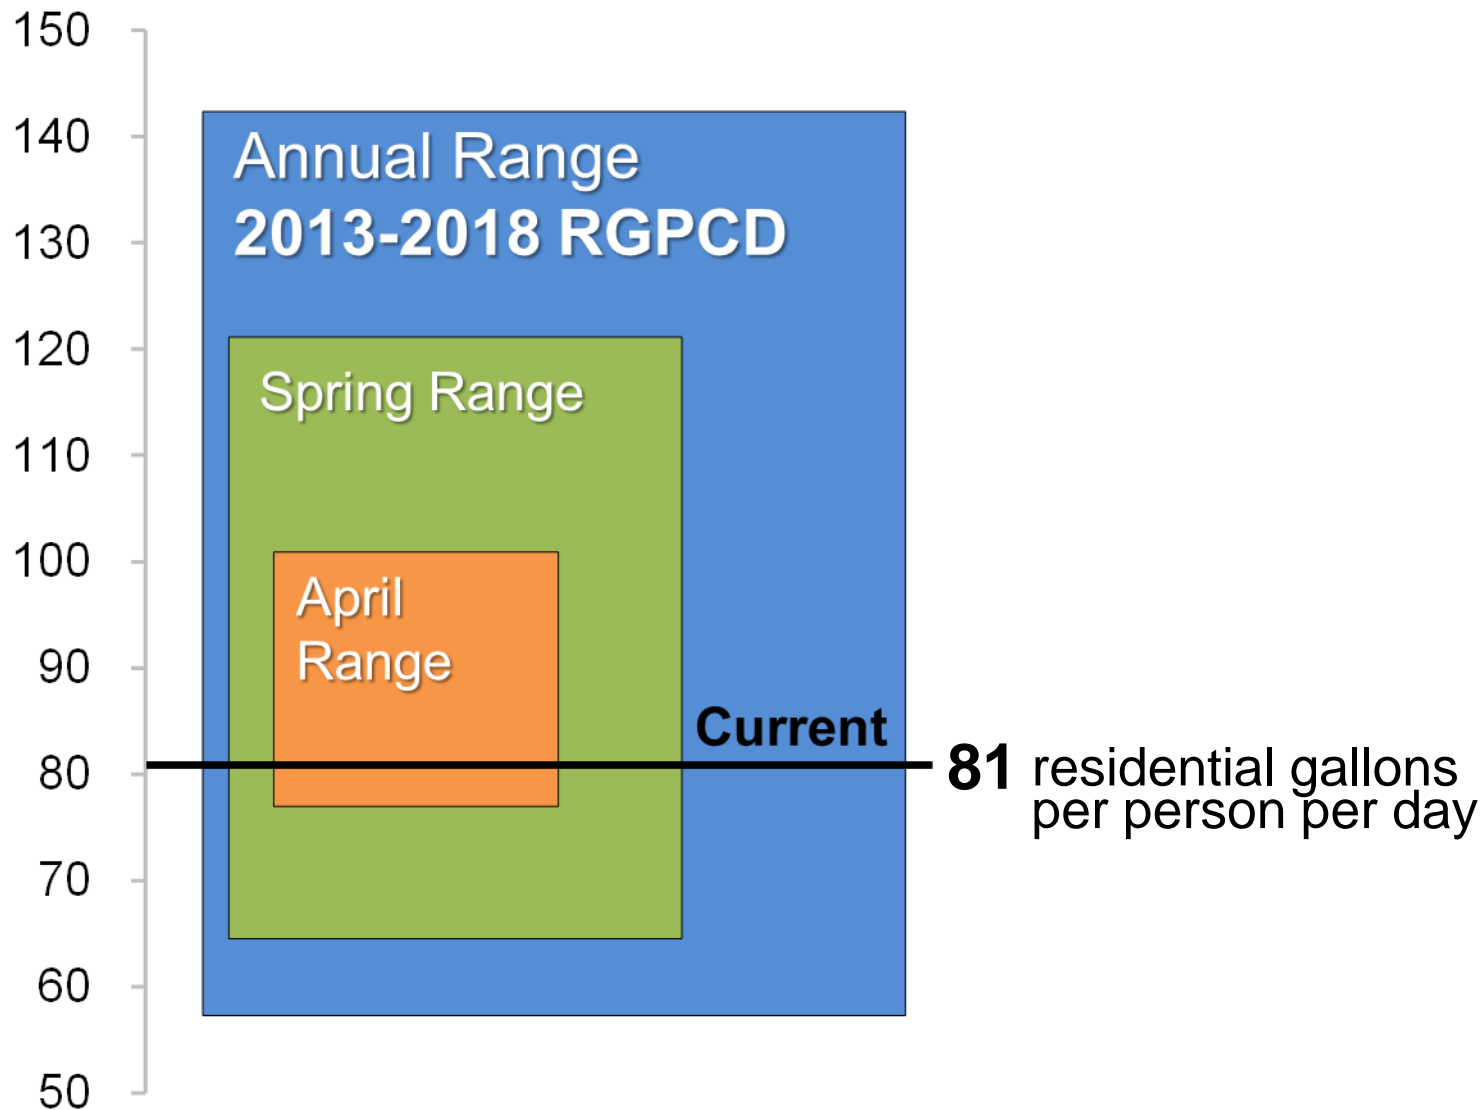

Savings 0-10%:
39 Suppliers

California urban water production

April 2018 URBAN WATER USE

AB1668/SB606

KEY PROVISIONS

- Authorize monthly reporting regulation
- Shift from percent reduction for water conservation to efficiency-based approach
- Provide a progressive enforcement approach
- Include new requirements for urban and agricultural water management planning

Urban Water Use OBJECTIVE

Aggregate Residential Indoor Use

+

Aggregate Residential Outdoor Use

+

Aggregate CII outdoor use

CII landscape areas with dedicated irrigation meters

+

Aggregate Water Loss

+

Aggregate Variances

+

Bonus Incentive

Up to 15% of potable reuse water

Efficiency Standards TIMING

2018

Begin standard development

2022

Adopt
standards, PMs,
and method

2023

Suppliers calculate objectives

2025

Suppliers reach objectives

More detailed Timeline

Next STEPS

- Encourage continued reporting
Initiate rulemaking for reporting in the Fall
- Prohibit wasteful water use practices
- Stakeholder meetings to inform water loss regulation
- Outdoor standard workshop June 11
- Pending workshops- AB1686/SB606 implementation